

UNT social work students to put on 5k benefitting teen moms

What: A Race for Awareness 5k Fun Run

When: 7 a.m.-11 a.m. May 30 (Saturday) Registration and packet pickup will be from 7a.m.-8:30a.m. Race will begin at 8:30 a.m.

Where: North Lakes Park, located at 2001 W. Windsor Dr. Denton, TX 76207

Cost: $25 for pre-registration will be available at <http://www.raceforawareness.com>. Cost will be $30 on May 30.

Contact: Abby Hansen, UNT social work student and race coordinator raceforawareness@gmail.com or (469)363-0468

DENTON (UNT), Texas – UNT Social Work Practice III class has teamed up with Alley’s House to host a 5k fun run raising awareness about teen pregnancy and benefitting the Dallas area nonprofit.

Alley’s House, located near the Fair Park area in Dallas, provides services and resources to assist pregnant and parenting teens. For the past semester, 27 social work students have worked with the clients and staff at Alley’s House providing services. So far, over $1000 has been raised by the students and all proceeds of the race will go directly to fund the services provided by Alley’s House.

Race day festivities will include entertainment, drawing for prizes, games and activities for all ages, timing of the race to provided by It’s About Time Race Management, and an awards ceremony following the race. Registration includes a t-shirt, water and snacks, free promotional items and one drawing ticket. Please note that this is a cross country style run and this should be taken into consideration by participants. For additional information, please contact Abby Hansen at (469)363-0468.

###